The Professional Development committee met monthly during the academic year of 2003-2004. During the year, the PDC planned and sponsored the following tours and presentations:

- October 17th, 2003: Tour of the Arnold Arboretum Library, hosted by Sheila Connor, Horticultural Research Archivist, and the Arboretum staff.

- February 6th, 2004: Introduction to Library Digital Projects (co-sponsored by LDI), a presentation by Sue Kriegsman, Digital Library Projects Manager, HUL OIS, and Wendy Gogel, Digital Library Projects Liaison, HUL OIS, with tours of the Harvard College Library Digital Imaging Group led by Bill Comstock, Manager of HCL DIG.

- April 23rd, 2004: Tour of Countway Medical Library and the Warren Anatomical Museum, hosted by Robert Prescod, Reference and Education Services Librarian.

The PDC managed The Douglas W. Bryant Fellowship, providing publicity and accepting and reviewing applications. The Bryant Brown Bag Lunch was held on January 16th for prospective applicants and featured previous recipients of the award. Three applicants were selected for the Fellowship for the year 2003-2004.

Members of the PDC also contributed to the development of the Mentoring Subcommittee, which is working on creating a mentoring program for HUL librarians and staff.
